TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE

Cader Idris. The giant peak of this wonderful mountain, "Arthur's Chair," is flanked to the east by Mynydd Moel and Cyfrwy, and to the west by Tyraumawr. Dolgelly lies at its feet. The easiest path up Cader Idris from Dolgelly is the Foxes' Path, which rises 900 feet at an angle of thirty-five degrees. There is a magnificent view from the summit, which is supposed to surpass even that from the top of Snowdon.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)
